SUCCESS SWEEPER-VAC

YESTERDAY'S

ANOTHER ONE TO-DAY

Hundreds of Women Came Yesterday to See Us Prove That the

Is Far and Away the Most Marvelous Household Necessity Ever Offered in Richmond

They saw it work, saw how it saves time and effort and carpet and health.

Saw how far behind it the broom and carpet sweeper are.

And they bought Sweeper-Vac-dozens ef them right on the spot, in our exhibit room, which shows that they were convinced of its value immediately.

So great was the success of yesterday's demonstration that we're extending the exhibit so everyone can benefit by it.

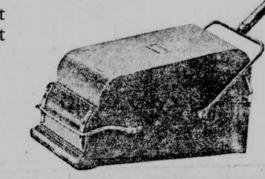

If you have'nt been here yet, come before it's too late.

This is the one big opportunity of a life-time to make sure about the Sweeper-Vac.

The investigation of campaign contributions, lately had, has expressed some of the darkest pages of pointfulions, lately had, has expressed some of the darkest pages of pointful history of the country, he continued it has revealed the unpleasant facts that the money med for campaign purposes, both by Republicans and Democrats in past years, was supplied planest whenly by men interested in the arise corporations that were amenable to punishment moder the antitrust law.

"The new crogressive party was fainted in the very beginning by putting itself in the hands of the same interests. It was managed and financed by promoters, corruptionists and trust magnates. In all these cases money was could but to secure the election of a man who, if elected, would be entrusted with the power of determining conclusively whether or not they should be prosecuted.

"No matter whether it was no understood or not, it was nothing more or less than buying immunity from such prosecution. They very naturally reasoned that the man who accepted their money in a function would not use the power their money and given him to pench them for making that money unlawfully."

Senator Works referred to the so-called "fiarriman contribution" in the rampaign fund of 120s, a fund which that itselfied was raised on Mr. Harriman said Roosevelt had asked him to raise but which Colonel Roosevelt had testified was raised on Mr. Harriman so was infiltative.

Barrison Had His Reward.

Harriman's own initiative

Harriman had His Reward,

'It is not very material which was right or which was wrone," said Sentator Works. 'Harriman received his reward, whether the money was tailed for that purpose or not. Suits by the novernment were at that very time pending against some of his companies, and after his contributions they well dismissed. His roads were althorwise favored by the Prostlent that his manny holped to elect."

A rivate presidential term, Senator Works declared, would prevent the use of patronage and the power of effect in the way it is now used and would remove the opportunity a President now has to grant favors or inflict punishment upon campaign friends of enemies.

He urged that campaign contributions he made only by the State or notion, declaring that "large campaign founds, however raised, are a canger-LINIMENT 27.27

The witness said he was trying to induce McNamara to employ two or three men to ascertain whether the eight-hour law was being violated. In another letter he stated "Brother Butler will be interested," referring to John T. Butler, of Buffalo, also a de-

John T. Better, of Euffalo, also a defendant, and added:
"Some of the brothers are setting restless and are anxious to see something happen."

In reply McNamara wrote:
"I am afraid you speak a little too plainly in your letters. I am not criticking you, but no one knows who reads my letters and this is just to give you a bointer. Our people should give you a pointer. Our people should be careful wout they but on paper when writing to headquarters." In reference to all his correspondence, Phillips disavowed any purpose to use violence on nonunion work.
